Joseph– The New Leader

For years, Joseph was in prison! Then one day he was taken to meet Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. The king had some strange dreams and he wanted to know what they meant. Someone had told the king that Joseph could explain dreams.

Match the beginnings and endings of these sentences.

Joseph was

Joseph said

to know the meaning of his dreams.

Joseph told the king that his dreams meant there were going to be seven years of very good crops; these would be followed by seven years of very poor crops. Famine would then spread all over Egypt. Joseph said the king should get someone to store up all the extra food during the good years. This would then be used to feed the people during the bad years.

Draw how many years of good crops there would be by adding apples to the tree, (1 apple = 1 year) and fill in the missing word.
